

A, I, E, C, I,
SOCIETAS INTERNATIONALE EPIGRAPHICAE GRAECAE ET LATINAE

AIEGL will award three Géza Alföldy stipends in 2016/17 in the amount of EUR 2,000 each to dedicated epigraphists from outside Europe who want to deepen their international contacts by participating in the XVth International Congress of Greek and Latin Epigraphy, to be held from August 28 to September 1st, 2017, at the University of Vienna.

In order to be eligible for the Géza Alföldy stipends, applicants must meet the following conditions:

1. Applicants must be active members of AIEGL who have their PhD or equivalent degree at the time of application and whose doctoral degree was awarded in 2009 or later.
2. Applications should be submitted to AIEGL by September 30, 2016. Abstracts to the Vienna Congress must be submitted independently. Decisions about the award of Géza Alföldy stipends will be announced by November 30, 2016.
3. Applications from those whose abstracts have been accepted for the Vienna Congress will be evaluated by a panel of Illviri praemiis dandis appointed by the Bureau of AIEGL from among senior members of our Association. Final decisions, based upon their recommendations will be made by the Bureau of AIEGL.

Completed applications, consisting of the following documentation, should be sent by Friday, September 30, 2016 by email attachment to the Secretary General, Professor László Borhy (secretarygeneral@aiegl.org):

Name, address (mailing and email), and CV (max. 1 page) of the applicant.

1. Name, address (mailing and email), and CV (max. 1 page) of the applicant.
2. Paper abstract (max. 1 page).
3. List of any other sources of funding, applied for or already secured, for the research stay.